

Interstation comes,

March 19, 1950.

Mr. Robert W. Bacon
Station Manager
Radio Station WRTC
Hartford, Conn.

Dear Bob:

I recently read of your appointment as Acting Regional Representative for the New England area of IBS, and would like to congratulate you on this appointment.

Although WYBC is not a member of IBS, I am always interested in keeping informed of other stations' activities, so the IBS Bulletin comes in handy.

Dave Borst approached the Ivy Network stations recently in New York and explained the new functions of IBS, notably the abandoning of the idea of soliciting national advertising. He asked the stations to consider following WHRB, Harvard, and rejoin IBS, a proposition which each station is now considering. I imagine we shall have reached some sort of decision by the time of the next Ivy meeting late in April.

In the meantime I shall be glad to hear about anything interesting going on in New England. My best regards to you and Fred.

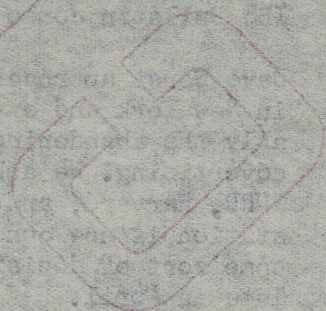

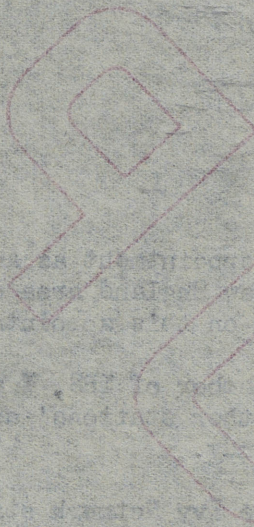

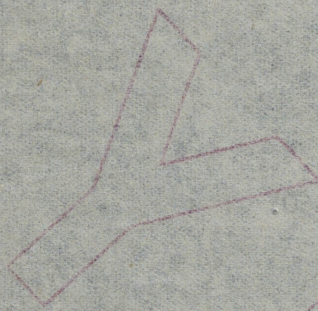

Cordially yours,

THE YALE BROADCASTING COMPANY

Howard Eaton, Jr.
Program Director
